

D. Facilities and equipment

The rooms where the treatment is administered and equipment used must be comparable to those of an outpatient clinic, facilities for outpatient anaesthetics must exist and an adequate treatment of medical emergencies must also be assured.