

J. Documentation

All data, from the preliminary examination to the final follow-up examination, must be documented. Both the image documentation of ultrasound or X-ray examinations and the treatment record are to be kept. Side effects and complications of the extracorporeal shockwave therapy are to be reported to the ESMST. The ESMST obliges its members to report all problems and complications arising in connection with extracorporeal shockwave therapy to the managing board.